Theve ratcheted up the total projection of the cost of Iraq to over one trillion dollars. The BW is banckrupting the country trying to get better oil prices for his cronies and his good buddy Abromoff. It is so bad; that he is getting hard resistance from real Republicans to the drain of money and resources going to the oil war.They cut out college aid from the budget to finance the oil company war in Iraq. So much for our kids. How much money do the rich need???
