An acquaintance of mine from my hometown has two 1970 Dodge Coronet convert's. One is the 500 "luxury" model and the other is the R/T. Bought new in 1970. Only a couple hundred of the R/T's made and around 500-600 for the 500 model. He's been offered $75K a piece for them, cash, and that was 15 years ago. He sold one of his fathers 1958 vettes for near $100K---all original of course. He still has a '57 and the other '58, and a real nice '57 Bel-air. Cool cars!
