See if you can find a copy of "Fear Of A Black Hat" which is _the_most biting satire on the hip hop/rap scene ever made--no contest. I loved that, but it is pretty raw. The director should do morework and maybe he has, but I haven't tracked any down. Saw Barbershop (I) and looking forward to II coming off thefirst run shelf. It has that Spike Lee "Do The Right Thing"community flavor and I'm glad that Ice Cube continues in the movie business. But frankly, I thought this wouldbe snapped up by tv and made into a series.
