Thanks...It`s no easy for me to express myself on English...not to mention the grammar:-)I watched old film by Romero (?), one of the classics of B-movies, but today I watch (almost) only Buffy, she`s my hero...Those paradox things... Remember "Perfect day" song, from "Transformer" album, Lou Reed? "High" on beautiful emotions/love, and then you realized that`s some other kind of "high", and song ended with "You`re going to reap just what you sow"... but, this "warning" is so lazy, relaxed and "high", too...Great moment of r`n`r, I liked it a lot - but I can`t listen to it anymore.That`s about it...
