You wrote: "But it's the Democrats screaming bloody murder every time someone brings up the prospect of closing our boarders and stopping illegal emigration."Correct me if I'm wrong, but didn't Hillary Clinton meet the Minutemen voluntees and support their effort.I'm not taking sides on the ILLEGAL immigration issue, but the Republican Party (George Bush) has done nothing to close our borbers. If you don't think this is an issue with "your" side, then please check out freerepublic.com, a very pro Bush news blog. It seems most hardcore Republicans believe Bush is doing very little to protect the AMERICAN people in terms of security or national identity.....Regards, Colin
