I realize my frame of reference is limited, but I watch out my window everyday the Mexboys bust ass. This is NOT "propaganda."I agree that illegal means "illegal." There is no disagreement here. Close our border, President Bush, and quit coddling President Fox's wishes on immigration.I know our forefathers built this country, but I also know that I am not Native American. My families immigrated from England, Scotland, Germany and Sweeden, although not for the past 200+ years. My family has given its blood for this county, and I will never forget their sacrifices. I only hope for the best, so my children can continue to enjoy what you and I have enjoyed. We have the same end in mind, just different ways of reaching it.Jeb? Intersting?!?!?!?Colin
