George Sr. was a reasonable man? Unfortunately your Democratic party wasn't so sure. Since the vast majority voted against the Gulf War. Not to mention the fact that the first unsuccesful attempt to discredit the Republicans by the Democrats was to say that they should have finished the job during the Gulf War and taken out Saddam then. Remember that? You said that the Democrats ran things between 1992-2000. This isn't true. The Republicans ran things. Clinton was nothing but an embarrasment to the nation. GW at least has restored respect to the office no matter how hard the liberal media tries to make it look otherwise. Undocumented workers is from the Democrats I assure you. If it was the Republicans trying to keep wages down they would be for illegal imagration. Isn't it the Democrats pandering to the unions trying to raise minimum wage every chance they get? Hmmm?
