What is the news over there by you on Iraq? Here they are so scared of being challenged by extremist viewers or aggravating advertisers or losing their priviledges at the White House that they just gloss over all the reports from Iraq until you would think that it was Disneyland over there.I personally see the re-organisation of Saddams original police force/the creation of militias that protect certain areas such as Kurdish Iraq/ the militarisation of the oil field and it's infrastructure. And a puppet govt. like we had in South Vietnam centered around Baghdad and guarded by U.S. Troops.I have no facts on this just a lifetime of observing how things work.
