You have to go to Eureka Springs to really appreciate it. IfI remember correctly, it was a forgotten town that was revitalized during the sixties as a hippie-haven. I was there about 10 years ago, and time still has not caught up with it. Fun place with lots of character. If you are ever in that part of the country, it's well worth the visit. Ifanyone reading makes it there, stay at the "Crescent Hotel." .....Colin
