A leader is someone who takes a group of people in a specific situation and motivates them to accomplish a goal. Do you think a politician is a leader?Good politicians ar supposed to serve, to take the people's money and decide how to spend it. THey are ultimately accountable to the people, who are their "bosses". That's why we have elections, to replace our public servants with others if we are not happy. I don;t think a public servant is a leader at all. At worst, he/he is a dishonest crook who steals, at best he / she is a public servant who performs his/her duties with a sense of service. -akhilesh
