I thought my mother was the first! My parents are both liberals. Just a step short of saving a jungle, i'd say. I dont see where politics goes into this one. You either work hard or hardly work, take your pick. Those are th rules of the road I grew up with and I know it came from my grandparents too. good, bad or indifferent. I grew up in that lifestyle and I'd like to know what happenned to it? Maybe my parents said the same and theirs before them...
