Yeah but Bill; you're talking about working people. Thats us; the rich, as they say are different.I have my own definition of how to get by as I am sure you do also. I don't need Bill Gates to explain it to me.I am not sure what the point of this post concerning Gates was; he was a bright guy; and also very lucky. My dad always said It's good to be smart and lucky but if you have to choose then I'd rather be lucky than smart.
