Please tell me what is so hard to understand about these words?"Judicial activism means making up constitutional rights in order to strike down laws the justices don't like based on their personal preferences."click on link for an example of legislating from the bench.Funny you asking for a COHERENT explanation of something. You really need to re-evaluate your thought process. All of this trouble you are having with facts and answering questions means you are either very uninformed or WRONG. Think about it.
