It was a great part. Harms only appeared a few times. He wore one of those little narrow-brimmed hats that accentuated his size all the more like a Giant Blues Brother. Quite frankly I don't think anyone else today could do the part. But that is because they are not bringing up the black actors to do these things. I have to admit that Ice Cube has grown into parts like the Barbershop films. But not many others come to mind... maybe one of the actors from _Kansas City_. That film had a bunch of great black character actors of the right size and style. I may not have the spelling right but Harms does explain his first name in one of those appearances. Salathiel was the Angel of Something or other-- anybody know?
