It was a great part. Harms only appeared a few times. He wore one of those little narrow-brimmed hats that accentuated his size all the more like a Giant Blues Brother. Quite frankly I don't think anyone else today could do the part. But that is because they are not bringing up the black actors to do these things. I have to admit that Ice Cube has grown into parts like the Barbershop films. But not many others come to mind... maybe one of the actors from Kansas City. That film had a bunch of great black character actors of the right size and style. I may not have the spelling right but Harms does explain his first name in one of those appearances. Salathiel was the Angel of Something or other-- anybody know?
