again... cheap talk and flames...point to one post where I went after anyone on the group build forum where I first wasn't attacked or flamed or trolled. Just one post...OTOH... I have put up posts of you flaming me which was totally unprovoked and purely gratuitous...and your admission of hurt feelings over a technical disagreement... and your fantasy that I had doug kicked off of AA... and that I've paid big money in sponership to "rule the roost" over at AA. Wake up. All offered as flames and personal attacks instead of rationally discussing the relevant issues. msl
