A few OPTs that "Heyboer" made for Doug and his friends are not "Peerless S265Q", but "modified copy of old Peerless S265Q OPTs, with added E-linear taps, made by Heyboer".But, obviously - this mess isn`t about those few OPTs, but nice theme for arguing (other themes are grid chokes, measurements, etc.). It`s about deep disagreement that more and more becomes an irrational hate.
