ooow... the lethal invalid jute-esque fantasy man of Damir's...have you sent him my way yet?Has he flown jetfighters under bridges?Posted by Damir_the real one on February 13, 2005 at 05:54:29on AA.:::A friend of mine, ex-special forces, now with an invalid pension (3 times wounded in battle), but in good shape, has plenty of time, has a sense of humour, but the kind of man you can`t BS with. Honest and brave, doesn`t like bad people - but he wouldn`t kill anybody without a reason.:::::::He knows almost nothing about tube electronics, but it`s alright - nor do many other people here...:::
