I buy a lot of music; because I like it. I tend to buy used or wait for sales and I have the Barnes and Noble 10% off card so that helps. But I still like to buy the music I like and I am not about to stop buying the music I like to protest the greed. Then what? You only live once so you have to listen to what you like now; because you ain't gonna get another chance at it.Unless it isn't that important to you in which case it doesn't really matter then.Of course there is the point that you can't listen to all the music in one lifetime; thats for sure.
