Subject: Australia; Good Men
Posted by Manualblock on Tue, 07 Mar 2006 13:14:20 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Even though Bush sees fit to sell out our country and provide atomic weapons to a country that is a non-signatory to the Non-proliferation treaty; and as such can do whatever they want with those weapons while we are bound by the treaty. The Australian PM has refused; as he should; to provide uranium to the Indian nuclear bomb makers. Three more years and hopefully guys like Howard who are strong enough to buck the bush will help us survive.