Can you boycott the fact that US (and EU) can't be safe, nice, and wealthy places no more - closed with iron walls - in the world where most of the countries are full of poor people? War is out there, with weapons and economics - and wealthy countries are the most responsible for that situation. What? All the manufacturing to the poor countries where workers work for peanuts and corrupted governments share with big companies? What? War in Iraq ruined millions - many of them will try to escape...do we need the war in Iran, too? During the war and economic crisis in ex-YU hundreds of thousands went to other countries, legal and illegal. I think that's almost 10% of the new population in Croatia now, mostly from Bosnia and Herzegovina, but from Kosovo, too. Is this bad thing for the domestics - you can bet...
