Ok so let me get this straight. The illegals protested by banning together to show that they can bring the US to its knees if they dont work. Their objective is that they could show how important they are to the needs of the country, economy and workforce. fine.Why would the US want to let more illegals in, make it easier for them to get status or drop our guard on the borders so more illegals can enter. since they are showing us that they will protest and try to hold a country hostage if they dont get what they want. It's like the trojan horse.
