
Subject: Re: Should Censorship Prevail?

Posted by colinhester on Fri, 25 May 2007 03:22:20 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

George Carlin said it best:" So some minister in Mississippi decided he didn't like what was on the radio, so he wrote to the president, and the FCC stepped in and set up standards of what could and could not be said. To the minister, there is another option. The two knobs on the front of the radio. One changes the channel, and the other turns it off....."
