This is my first post on this forum, but I am active on a lot of other audio forums. I was wondering what the closest place to audition the Seven Pi Corner speakers would be, without going to Oklahoma.

I currently have Klipshorn/Altec speakers (Also Corner speakers) but I am always curious how other hi-Eff speakers sound. I was wondering if there was anyone in the Minneapolis area that had the Seven Pi speakers that would be willing to give me an audition. In return they would be welcome to audition my System which consists mostly of 45, 2A3, 300B SET amps and the Khorn/Altec (Which consist of Khorn Bass Bins and Tweeters with Altec 1005B horns and 288-16K drivers).
