Subject: Re: turntable problem
Posted by ARTIdaho on Wed, 26 May 2010 15:40:53 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

If you are looking for something that really works well but is economical, easy to come by and not 'dirty yuk', go with white lithium. be conservative with it, too much just become messy and does nothing but collect dust. Take the age of your table and the lithium should last that long before the need to relube. Chuck