My 26 year old daughter bought me an iPod two years ago which I thought I wouldn't use much as I just love listening to the radio. She was so excited as she explained to me that I could store endless thousands of songs on my iPod but that didn't really turn my pages

A few months later (and because I saw my daughter's beady eyes lighting on my unused iPod) I learned to download radio podcasts and now I have about 8000 tracks on my iPod most of it voice radio podcasts and some of it music.

What's on your iPod ?
