Okay, does anybody remember the first record they ever bought? I'm going to date myself with this question, but I must've been about 10 and I thought 'Mellow Yellow' was the coolest song. I even remember the artist, who was 'Donovan'. So I took my dollar to the dime store and bought the 45 for this song. Can't remember how much I paid, maybe 45 or 50 cents. I found a box of 45's in my closet the other day..... I'm going to have to see if 'Mellow Yellow' is in this box.
