Hey WayneWhat sort of music do you like listening too? I like dance and hip-hop music (it isnt a sin to play that on horns, ;), but I like a variety of other music depending on what mood I'm in. Sometimes I hear a song which really catches me even if its not in a genre I listen to much. Sometimes its hard to find good music though because theres also a lot of crap out there :P Wont mention any names though! in case the backstreet boys or sean paul happen to read this forum... opps, I think I just mentioned some, haha.
