
Subject: Re: New vocalist: Pamela Luss / The Monkey
Posted by Manualblock on Mon, 20 Mar 2006 14:21:18 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

There is a whole genre' of female recordings that deal with sex. Believe me the lyrics on those records would shock the supposedly jaded public today. And they were recorded in the twenties and thirties. What do people think a "One-Eyed cat; peepin in a seafood store" might mean? That's very tame compared to what's on record. Redd Foxx recorded a lot of the jokes along with Moms Mabley but many of the real hard-core artists I don't know the names. Signifying Monkey had to do with release from prison right? Bessie Smith did some raunch records also. BTW; The Last Poets; thanks That's the stuff I like. I listened to a couple poems and I've ordered the CD.
