While there are no shortage of new material out there, I tend to grow my collection by discovering new-to-me artists. I know how you feel about all the "girls" that we tend to talk about, so I'll stick to the male side. The two that I've really enjoyed getting to know this summer has been Lyle Lovett and Willy Nelson. One CD that I highly recommend is the Willy Nelson/Johnny Cash VH-1 Storyteller. Two man, two guitars, and some incredible presentation of some old favorites. Gar.
