Hi Bill,

It's been a while, good to see you still playin' with the 4Pis. I've recently moved on from my Theater 4s (too big) to a pair of 4 pis like yours and am enjoying them a lot. Use the Paramour 2A3's, Adcom 200w beast, and for the past year or so a couple of T amps. The 47hz Amp 6 is the same chip as the amp your getting so I think you will be in for a treat. I've also used the Sure 2x "100W" amp board sold by Parts Express and like it too, especially with the extra boost it gives rock and large scale orchestral music. The combination of power with refinement can't be beat anywhere near the price of these T amps. Dynamic, sweet, huge soundstage, quiet, transparent....all the code words for superior music reproduction. They only fall down a bit on the vague notion of emotion and "musicality", but only a bit. Still very enjoyable.

Resp.

Garland
