I'll send the plans right now, so check your mail.

For shipping prices and options, use the shopping cart. Place the items you want in your cart and start the checkout process. It will ask your address and use that to calculate shipping prices by a variety of shippers/methods. It doesn't ask payment method until later, so you don;t have to purchase right away unless you want to. This was, you can use the cart as a shipping quote calculator.
