Posted by Drury on Wed, 18 May 2011 13:28:56 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I stumbled across a DVD of the oldish film 'From 13 to 30' at a garage sale and thought it would be fun to watch with my daughters. (They're 11 and 13.) It was when I was laughing at the references such as 'Love is a Battlefield' that I realised I'm getting old! They had no clue what was so amusing.