Ok. So what's the name of the Electro site?What I wanted was some broad spectrum work which I wasn'tfamiliar with so I'd get a good test. It's easy to say everythingsounds fine when you are playing your old faves. It's somethingI'm trying to cure myself of.As to 12 volters, I see some setups using what looks like a Die Hard(c) from Tripplite or someplace. Would the walwartproduce any noticeable hum?
