Subject: Re: Westminster Abbey Organ
Posted by LizardBat on Tue, 23 Aug 2011 10:43:15 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

There's a lovely organ at St. Leonard's Church in Shoreditch (right next to the town hall, near Old Street station) that's also lovely. Well worth a stop in, especially if they are having a concert. They have a lot of fun concerts there, usually for cheap or free, so it's a good one to check out.