I saw this over the weekend and enjoyed it immensely. I am very pleased with the way they did the movie, with the original Superman score by John Williams and with the overal continutiy of the first 2 Superman movies. I heard a long time ago that they were discounting 3 and 4, so this was not a surprise, in fact when I first heard it, I was pleased because those last 2 really didn't fit into the mold anyway.I will speak more about this later once everyone has had a chance to see it, I don't want to give any spoilers right now.And yes, I will see it again!
