Good links. "Beyond The Fringe"; what is that BTW? I saw Syrianna; well done irrespective of the conspiracy angle. Just to see Clooney put on 50 lbs is worth the price of admission. But it is a little depressing to watch and I can't help but think that it has the " Ring of Truth" about it.Rome was a good series; I watched it over the winter. Interesting characters. They used some pretty qualified historians as consultants.Leonard Rossiter is a funny man.
