The Wiz wrote on Sun, 04 March 2012 23:58 That's an interesting question. I like terrazzo flooring, but I've never thought if it much in terms of acoustics. What brought this up, do you have a project that actually involves a room with terrazzo floors?

No, I don't have a project but I'm looking at houses. Most of them were built in the 60s and apparently terrazzo floors were big back then.
