Well, the first performance of the year was outstanding! Miss Chu-Fang Huang was most a extraordinary pianist. She was hitting the keys so hard at times that the whole Steinway was moving around!, yet could pull off the most delicate of passages as well. They are in the process of choosing a new conductor and Eduardo Espinel was much better IMO than the gentlemen they had in previous years. He was very animated and genuinely enthused with the music. Really prompting each section to rise to the occasion and give their best. It will be interesting to see the other "finalists" the selection committee has chosen.
