I don't remember Ron being from the west coast but I do remember the one eyed quarterback for the Washington Huskies that beat Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl in 1959. Bob Schloredt lost an eye in a fireworks accident but still was one of the best quarterbacks to ever come out of Washington. Wisconsin was favored by 10 points but Washington beat them 44-8 and ended a 36 year dry spell for Washington and a 13 year run of PAC 8 teams losing to Big 10 teams.
