I absolutely agree with you guys that ANY dog can turn vicious if it is not treated properly and socialized. Pitbulls are a very misunderstood breed. We also have a registered full bred American Pitbull Terrier and she is such a big baby! She is fiercely loyal to my wife and my kids, and she sleeps in our bed under my wife's covers every night! The kids have pulled her tail, chewed on her tail (I have a one year old), and tried to ride her like a pony. She just lies there and licks them!
