Hi Wayne.

Sold a pair of Altec drivers to raise some funds, and now getting ready to start a 4Pi project. Got a killer deal on used 2226s. Not seeing any killer deals on B&C DE250s out there... Parts Express showing them back ordered, as I gather is your H290 replacement. Oh well, no big hurry.

Would you please be so kind as to send me a copy of the 4Pi plans?

Thanks!

Gary
