Anyway, it has Beats Audio as it's speaker system and I love it. Does anyone else use a Beats Audio system? How do you like it?

I wouldn't be that worried, I always considered a new computer to be fine for a few years. They age quickly but if you just got it last year, you should be good for a while.

As for Beats Audio, my best friend got a new laptop a couple months ago that has it. We're both pretty impressed, for a laptop it sure works pretty well.
