Subject: Re: Car DVD Players
Posted by gofar99 on Fri, 14 Dec 2012 02:21:37 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hi, A simple way to do that is to get one of the cheap transmitter devices that allow you to play MP3 etc through the FM section of the car radio. Many can be had for under $20. No cutting etc and patching into the wiring. Now that said many recent car radios have an aux input that will accept the output from a device like you bought.