I'm not much on music DVD's as I'd rather listen than watch some of the onstage antics. That said I have Dire Straits DVD On The Night and it's absolutely stunning sonically. If you've never heard a steel guitar in a metal band this is your chance. They traveled with 8 band members which I never knew before I had this DVD. Very powerfull music they make.Sort of related is my very short list of DVD's I watch. Pink Floyd-Pulse. The only light show I ever enjoyed period. Great music also. The Eagles-Farewell Tour. Very little theatrics, just good music.
