I should get orders soon for an August return to the US (Washington DC area). I cannot wait to get out of here....2 years is a long time.

My brother lives in Ausin, so it is possible I can make next years show. I really want to go, seems to me the more laid back style would be better than the ones covered by Stereophile etc.

Still loving my Pi's! They really sing with my fully upgraded Odyssey Khartago amplifier.
