Hi Wayne,

many thanks for the explanation, you were very clear!

I must say that it is a real pleasure for me to attend this forum, the dialogues are calm and cheerful, and this contributes greatly to learn new things.

Plus you never fail to give explanations to those who, like me, they need it.

My only regret is that, cause of the language, I can not always understand everything at the first reading, and I can not always express perfectly what I mean ... but google translate helps me a lot!

I only ask you to be patient if sometimes I make some mistakes in language ... Thank you.

Regards
