Hi Everyone,  Seems to be my week to b#@!h.  I ordered a phono cartridge from Japan.  One not usually available in the US (an AT-33PTG/II).  The time it took to get from the supplier in Japan to Tucson, including going through customs is less than the time it is taking the Post Office to get it the last 75 miles.  Worse it was sent by Second Day Air Express and got to Tucson early AM on Friday.  Early enough to get it to here on Saturday.  And folks wonder why the PO is not well liked.....
