I just watched The Call finally and it was amazing. Has anyone else seen it? Halle Berry plays the main character and she is a 911 operator. She made a foolish mistake in the very beginning of the movie (can't say what in case you haven't seen it). If you like suspense, you have to see this one. I was on the edge of my seat the entire time! If you watched it already, what did you think about it?
