Hey Brian,

Great job on your 3PIs, looking good!!!

I like your use of the odds and sods with the mounting of your Xover boards and carriage bolt feet, but any Canadian worth his salt should have some Duck Tape in the mix.

Can you say Red Green.

I still have not gotten to my 4PI build, our kitchen reno has decided to take up all my hobby time. Hopefully in a month or so I can get to it.

Again, congrats on a nice job,
Tom
